God's mission for the church is so large that it calls for every single one of us to do something. It's a mission of extending the love of God and the love of neighbor in the world in a thousand creative ways, and it's a mission of equipping and nurturing the people who respond to God through this congregation. We want you to join boldly with the Spirit's work in the world by checking the boxes beside ministries where you sense God is calling you to serve. If you have any questions, please contact the church office at 434-6194.
